

Sarah Jean Morris

Homelessness: I believe we are really in an uphill battle and because it is so multifaceted, there is absolutely no easy answer. The biggest thing for me is leading with Compassion and Grace and realizing that those living on the streets are someone's loved one... they are humans and they deserve those of us who have managed the climb, to help them in their journey... I also believe that we must take steps in teaching accountability and to be able to do that and be successful people have to have stability. We should be helping those who want help.

Environmental stewardship: We get one planet and we better start giving a shit before it's too late. We are in the 11th hour of too late.

Public Safety: This is Government's main role. Whether it be clean streets or safe drinking water to a police force we can trust and a Council who believes in Transparency. Lacey has all of those.

Economic Development: Small business is so important to small towns! I want to make sure to set businesses up for success. If any business is ever offered "incentives" it should be locally owned SMALL business... not multimillion dollar large businesses...

Growth Management: I'm not sure what exactly this means, feel free to reach out with a more direct question.

Transportation: SO IMPORTANT! I used to say the driving age should be increased to 21 so people have to use public transportation... though it will never happen, it would be so nice if more people utilized it. With that said, I am kind of a hypocrite as I don't use it... (I also enjoy calling out my own hypocrisy) Again, I'm not sure exactly what we are looking for here answer wise.

Diversity: What makes us great is diversity! Even politically. We have got to have balance or this whole system will spin off the axis. I hope to always stay fair and balanced... Oh Gawd, I feel like that is Fox New's tag line... I guess I actually mean it though... I do not view those who don't think like me as the enemy... though there are some pretty big non negotiables for me that I can't comprehend aren't common ground... but these days it feels more like a Twilight Zone episode than anything else, so nothing surprises me!

I hope this gives you a peek into me! Please visit my website www.SarahForLacey.com for more information or reach out to me and let's do coffee/chat! Please ignore any forum you see of me in, haha! It is NOT my strong suit!

I have the passion for this and would love to earn your vote August 6th and then again in November!

Sarah Jean Morris